Emergency Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Patrick explained to the group the status of the grant funding for the Early Warning System on Middle Creek. The bottom line is that the funding will probably not be available until sometime around December. Patrick handed out copies of the current LEPC Hazardous Materials Plan as required by EPCRA. The current plan is essentially late 90's vintage and fairly outdated. Patrick has gone through and made a lot of updates on names, terminology, etc. The group was asked to review the current plan for organizational, procedural, and operational items that need to be updated. We will plan on working on those at the next AHAD Meeting in June. Patrick advised that group that he is working on setting up a Special Needs Registry for the county. He has been working with 911 to see how this can be integrated into the 911 CAD system. At this point it looks like it is a fairly easy thing to do with minimal overhead. The group had a quite lengthy discussion about the possibilities of this and what options/ criteria could be used. After the 911 CAD upgrade is complete we will schedule this item during an AHAD Meeting and define the scope and procedures.
Citizen Corps	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> MSU will be holding a Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) Course this summer. The course is open to anyone who wishes to attend. There is an organizational meeting at MSU on May 27th at 6:00 PM at the SUB, Room 275.

Volunteers Active in Disaster	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Patrick advised everyone that the Red Cross has gone through some staff reductions in Montana recently. Bozeman did retain their staff member. As part of the this state has gone to an 800 number for requesting Red Cross Assistance. This new number does not apply to Gallatin County. If agencies in Gallatin County need the Red Cross, they still go through Gallatin County 911 and they will page the Red Cross.

Communications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ben Hess advised that they now have access to the sites and an lot of work is now moving forward. The 5 IM sites now have the equipment in and are moving forward coming online. The construction of the new 911 center is moving forward and they hope to break ground soon. Work has also begun on converting the North Repeater to a two site Simulcast System.
