Emergency Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Theresa led a discussion on Primary and Supporting agencies for the initial annexes to be re-written for the emergency plan. The agencies that needed to be involved were identified by the group as well as any existing documentation pertaining to the topic. An outline of the planning process was given in which the primary agencies would develop the initial draft, then all involved agencies would develop the final document. All drafts and meeting schedules will be posted on readygallatin.com for people to review. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A discussion was held on the 2010 Homeland Security Grants that are currently open. Only the Sheriff's Office was planning on applying to finish the equipping on the mobile command vehicle. After some discussion it was decided that it would be a good idea for 911 to apply for some upgrades to the paging system to replace the primary sites with simulcast transmitters. 911 stated that they could work on this and Patrick said he would help them out too. Patrick handed out information on the State's Pre Disaster Mitigation Plan Meeting being held in Bozeman and encouraged those that could to attend.
