Presentations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Snohomish County Emergency Management (Everett, WA) gave a presentation on the Highway 530 Land Slide (aka Oso Land Slide) that occurred in March 2014. The presentation covered an overview of the incident and some high level lessons learned. Following the presentation there was some good discussion on mass fatalities and on use of spontaneous volunteers.
Action Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We reviewed so proposed changes to the Mental Health section of Human Services Annex. This was the last component for this year's reviews and Patrick will get them ready for the adoption process. We set a date of December 4th in the evening for the coordination center exercise. Design committee will get together on the design. Betty reviewed the ChemPack plan with the group. Patrick reminded people that the airport exercise is coming up and is functional this year.
Updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Gallatin County is hosting a Liaison Officer Course this year and registration is open. Gallatin County will be hosting another Leadership Seminar this winter on February 21 & 22. More information will be coming out soon. Tara introduced herself as the new emergency manager at MSU.
